Designated Settlement/EDSP Period: Times may vary in line with US daylight savings times or during US and/or UK public holiday periods.

*Futures Unofficial Settlement Duration: The minimum time period that a futures contracts settlement prices will be displayed (Yellow on WebICE), allowing for any objections from market participants, before such prices will become the Official Settlement prices.

† For contracts designated with a (†), an unofficial price will not be published, and the official price will be deemed final after the respective duration has lapsed.

Settlement and Marker Volume Thresholds
The Settlement and Marker Volume Thresholds determine the minimum traded volume which needs to be executed during the Settlement/Marker period for the purposes of calculating prices by means of a trade weighted average.
The Settlement and Marker Volume Thresholds are set on a contract by contract basis determined by the Exchange. These thresholds also apply to volume on legitimate prevailing orders throughout the entirety of the respective Settlement/Marker window.

^Quarterly Expiries: For quarterly expiries, Three Month Euro (Euribor) Future EDSP is used to determine the Three Month Euro (Euribor) Option EDSP.

Table of FTSE Index Intraday Auction Periods

The table below shows the EDSP periods for Futures and Options which are based on intraday closing auctions on the day of Expiry.

Contract	EDSP Period*
FTSE 100 Index Futures and Options[±]	10:10 - 10:15[±±±]
FTSE 250 Index Futures and Options[±±]	Quarterlies: 10:10 - 10:15[±±±]

EDSP Period: As mentioned above, times may vary in line with US daylight savings times or during US and/or UK public holiday periods.

[±±±]FTSE Intra-day EDSP Auction
The EDSP of the FTSE 100 Index Futures and Options[±] and the FTSE 250 Index Futures and Options[±±] is derived from the Expiry Value level calculated by FTSE Russell from an intraday auction conducted by the London Stock Exchange. The auction begins at 10:10 LLT on the expiry day. The Expiry Value is rounded to the nearest minimum price movement to derive the EDSP. Please note that the auction can be extended. More information can be found here.
Trading shall cease as soon as reasonably practicable after 10:15 LLT once the Expiry Value of the Index has been determined. More information can be found here.

[±]Option contracts with a third Friday expiry day where an EDSP Intraday Auction is operated. All other expires where an EDSP Intraday Auction is not operated, the EDSP period will be 16:30 - 16:35.

[±±]Option contracts with a third Friday quarterly expiry day in the March, June, September and December cycle and an EDSP Intraday Auction is operated. For expiries on days where an EDSP Intraday Auction is not operated, the EDSP will be the closing index value on the expiry day rounded to the nearest minimum price movement. The EDSP period for expiries where an EDSP Intraday Auction is not operated will be 16:30 - 16:35.
