

Part of the world’s leading network of exchanges and clearing houses

Tailored for the Asian market, connecting local market participants to a global ecosystem of information, trading and clearing

Intercontinental Exchange (ICE) provides the world’s leading network of exchanges and clearing houses for financial and commodity markets.

As global financial markets have grown, the need for innovation and agility has increased. You need exchanges and clearing services that provide proven risk management solutions in the time zones and regulatory jurisdictions where you want to do business. ICE Futures Singapore and ICE Clear Singapore connect customers and the derivatives markets in Asia to our global trading and clearing network, while being located in the Singapore regulatory jurisdiction and time zone.

ICE’s Global Exchange & Clearing House Network

“ICE has had a presence in Singapore for over a decade. ICE Singapore is a natural evolution of our strategy to extend our network of markets across the globe.”

David Goone, Chief Strategy officer, Intercontinental Exchange
