Re: Delisting of RJ-CRB Index Futures and Continuous Commodity Index Contracts - Submission Pursuant to Section 5c(c)(1) of the Act and Regulation 40.6

Dear Mr. Stawick:

Pursuant to Section 5c(c)(1) of the Commodity Exchange Act, as amended (the “Act”) and Regulation 40.6(a), thereunder, ICE Futures U.S., Inc. (“Exchange”) submits by written certification, notice to the Commission that the Exchange will cease listing any new expiration months in the RJ-CRB Index and Continuous Commodity Index (“CCI”) Futures Contracts, and is delisting all expiration months in RJ-CRB Index Futures Contracts as of the open of business on September 26, 2012. There is no open interest in any of the RJ-CRB expiration months as of the close of trading today.

The Board of Directors determined to delist the RJ-CRB and CCI contracts on September 20, 2012, based on the low volume transacted year to date, as well as historically, which evinced a lack of trader interest in the products. As of the close of business today, the only CCI expiration months with open interest are the November 2012, January 2012, February 2013 and April 2013 expirations months; the latter expires on April 12, 2013, and upon such expiration trading of CCI Futures Contracts will cease.

ICE Futures U.S., Inc., a designated contract market under the Commodity Exchange Act, as amended.
