- b. Procedures on Revocation –
 - (i) Within 5 Business Days of receiving notice of Revocation from Alberta Environment in respect of an Alberta Environmental Product that was delivered under a Physically Settled Environmental Futures Transaction, the Buyer of a Revoked Credit must notify Exchange of the Revocation in writing. Failure to notify Exchange within this timeframe, except where proven for good cause, will be deemed a waiver of the revocation warranty provided for in this Section.
 - (ii) Within 5 Business Days of receipt of notice from Buyer under subparagraph (i), Exchange will inform each Warranting Seller that delivered the Revoked Credit under a Physically Settled Environmental Futures Product within the past 36 months of the Revocation in writing accompanied by an Invoice for the Revocation Value, offsetting any Revocation Value that the Warranting Seller would be entitled to claim as Buyer in a previous Transaction for the same Revoked Credit.

- (iii) Within 5 Business Days of receipt of a notice from Exchange under subparagraph (ii), the Warranting Seller must, for each Revoked Credit, (A) pay the Revocation Value, or (B) if the Warranting Seller is the first Warranting Seller within the past 36 months (the “First Warranting Seller”), deliver a replacement Environmental Product (“Replacement Credit”) to Exchange’s account at the applicable Registry in accordance with paragraph d. of this Section (the “Revocation Obligations”).

Pro-Rata Distribution of Partial Revocation Value or Replacement Credits – In the event that one or more Revocations are notified to a Warranting Seller within 15 Business Days of another Revocation, and the aggregate of the Revocation Value and Replacement Credits provided by the Warranting Seller constitutes only partial satisfaction of the aggregate Revocation Obligations for such Revocations, the disbursement of Revocation Value and Replacement Credits to each affected Buyer will be prorated as a proportion of the Warranting Seller’s aggregate Revocation Obligation.

For greater certainty, failure by the First Warranting Seller to deliver Replacement Credits in accordance with Section 10.b. results in forfeiture by the First Warranting Seller of its right to provide Replacement Credits, and its outstanding Revocation Obligations are converted to financial obligations.
 - (ii) If any Revocation Value remains unsatisfied (the “Unsatisfied Revocation Amount”), Exchange will promptly claim on the Revocation Warranty Fund for the Unsatisfied Revocation Amount, subject to the then-current amount of the Revocation Warranty Fund.
 - (iii) Promptly following the expiry of 15 Business Days after the claim is made on the Revocation Warranty Fund, Exchange will pay, or cause to be paid, the proceeds, if any, of such claim to Buyer subject to the then-current amount of the Revocation Warranty Fund and any pro-ration in accordance with section 10.f.
- c. Full Satisfaction of Revocation Obligations –
 - (i) Payment by the Warranting Seller of the Revocation Value or by delivery of Replacement Credits will constitute full satisfaction of the Warranting Seller’s Revocation Obligations in respect of the Revoked Credit and the Warranting Seller will have no further liability in respect of such Revocation or Revoked Credit, except the extension of the revocation warranty to any Replacement Credits delivered by the Warranting Seller.
 - (ii) Receipt by the Buyer of amounts collected by Exchange from the Warranting Seller or pursuant to a claim on the Revocation Warranty Fund will constitute full satisfaction in respect of the Revocation and Buyer will have no further recourse against Exchange or the Warranting Seller in respect of such Revocation or Revoked Credit, except the extension of the revocation warranty to any Replacement Credits delivered by the Warranting Seller.
- d. Pro-Rata Distribution on Concurrent Claims - In the event that one or more Unsatisfied Revocation Amounts results in one or more claims on the Revocation Warranty Fund made within 15 Business Days of another claim that, in aggregate, exceed the amount then available under the Revocation Warranty Fund, the disbursement to each affected Contracting Party will be prorated as a proportion of the aggregate Unsatisfied Revocation Amount claimed.
- e. Exchange Not Liable – For greater certainty, Exchange will not be liable to Buyer, and will not provide any indemnification to Buyer, under this Section or any other provision of this Agreement including this Schedule, in respect of a Revoked Credit other than for any Replacement Credits or amount collected from the Warranting Seller or pursuant to a claim on the Revocation Warranty Fund and will not be liable for any Revocation Value or Unsatisfied Revocation Amount greater than the Revocation Warranty Fund.

- f. Survival of Revocation Warranty – For greater certainty, the rights of the Buyer and the liability and obligations of the Warranting Seller under the Revocation Warranty provided under this Section, including the extension of the revocation warranty to any Replacement Credits delivered by the Warranting Seller, survive the termination of this Agreement and enure to the Buyer’s and Warranting Seller’s respective successors and permitted assigns.

12. Force Majeure

- a. Exchange May Declare Force Majeure – A force majeure event may be declared by Exchange at a Registry if the Registry Operator or the relevant governmental authority declares a force majeure event or materially curtails, delays, interrupts or prorates title transfer services for a material number of Contracting Parties. Exchange also reserves the right to declare a force majeure if an event (including, but not limited to, a strike, lockout, national emergency, governmental action or act of God) occurs that materially affects the ability of a material number of Contracting Parties to meet their Obligations and that is beyond the control of the Contracting Parties.

 - (iv) the loss of the Buyer’s market or the Buyer’s ability to use or resell an Environmental Product purchased hereunder; or
 - (v) the loss of the Seller’s Environmental Product or inability or failure of the Seller’s assets or operations to generate an Environmental Product.
- c. Effect of Force Majeure on Delivery Timelines – If a force majeure event is declared by Exchange during the delivery period for an Environmental Product, Exchange may, in its sole discretion, extend the Delivery Period until such time as the Registry Operator is able to perform title transfer services.

- a. Investigation – Exchange will, in consultation with the applicable Registry Operator, make a determination of whether a force majeure event exists, an estimate of its probable duration, and its impact on deliveries of the Environmental Product.
- b. Notice to Contracting Parties – If a force majeure event is determined by Exchange to exist (the “Force Majeure Declaration”), all affected Contracting Parties will be immediately notified by notice on Exchange’s Website, phone, instant message or email:
 - (i) that the Force Majeure Declaration has been made; and
 - (ii) the anticipated delay or impact to Obligations to make or take delivery under Physically Settled Environmental Futures Transactions.
- c. Title Transfer – If the Force Majeure Declaration will result in reduced obligations to make or take delivery under Physically Settled Environmental Credits Futures Transactions, the Seller, Buyer and Exchange will make all necessary changes with the applicable Registry to reflect the reduced obligations.
- d. Further Notice – Exchange will promptly advise the affected Contracting Parties of any material changes and updates to the Force Majeure Declaration.
